European Commission

You represent the European Commission.

Remember: The Commission proposes legislation but does not adopt it alone.

Your role is to:

- Identify the problem
- Propose the legislation
- Explain why action is needed

During negotiations:

- Defend your proposal
- Listen to suggested amendments
- Help Parliament and Council reach agreement

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them

European Parliament

You represent Members of the European Parliament.

Your role is to:

- Represent EU citizens
- Debate the proposal
- Suggest amendments
- Vote on the final text

Think about:

- Citizens
- Environmental impact
- Costs
- Feasibility

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for their content.

Council of the European Union

You represent the governments of EU Member States.

Your role is to:

- Examine the proposal
- Consider national interests
- Negotiate with Parliament
- Approve or reject the final text

Ask Yourself:

- Is this realistic for all Member States?
- Would your country support this proposal?
- What changes would improve it?

Journalists

You are political journalists covering today's negotiations.
Observe carefully. Interview each institution.

You may ask questions during negotiations.

At the end prepare a news report explaining:

- The proposal
- The main disagreements
- Amendments
- Final decision
